

Student Name:

Date:

Study Questions for Quiz on BGB on Social Justice

- To prepare, you should review your annotations and be familiar with major plot events and details about characters, conflict and challenges that they face and setting.
- You should also be familiar with the purpose of the author(s). What is the message behind this book?

Here are some questions that you should be able to answer:

1. What is the full name of the main character or what are the names of central participants that the book focuses on?
2. Who are members of the main character's family or the people that support or associate with the central participants?
3. Where does the book start?
4. What event or concerns are the author(s) focused on in the book? List at least two. Why are they important?
5. What are choices that the main characters or participants face? List at least two.

Student Name:

Date:

6. What are the goals of the main characters or participants?
7. What are some of the challenges that the main characters or participants face?
8. What type of BIAS do the main characters or participants have to consider?
9. What are some of the social conditions in the book that create pressure for the main characters or participants?
10. What are some of the consequences that the main characters or participants have to deal with or confront?

Student Name:

Date:

11. How do the decisions of the main characters or participants impact society?
12. How do the decisions of the main characters or participants lead to other problems?
13. What is the social justice principle that the main character or participant standing up for?
14. What is the social justice principle that the main character or participant going against?
15. What do you believe is the author's main purpose in writing the book? What is important?